Subject: Attorneys General for "Uncommon Sense" on Immigration Reform
Date: 04/08/2013 11:23 AM

Lynn,

Allow me to make the following observations with respect to your recent e-mail:

1. I have come to dislike the phrase "common sense." Contrary to my hopefully informed intuition as to consequences, almost everything President Obama proposes these days is "common sense", eg., "common sense health coverage, common sense immigration reform, you name it." Indeed, the phrase is being utilized so often so as to become trite; one should also keep in mind that Webster's, among other meanings of "common", defines the term as conveying "second rate." What is needed in the immigration debate is "uncommon sense", a commodity currently in very short supply in Washington. I would rename your e-mail as stated above.
2. Throughout the letter you use the phrase "undocumented". I understand the Liberal urge to use a euphemism, but I have always thought it better to call a spade a spade. In this instance the semantically accurate term is "illegal". The overwhelming majority of the 11 million "illegals" in this country are not victims of administrative error on the part of ICE or some other agency. Nor are they individuals who have simply lost their papers. Instead they are persons who, with their families, have deliberately violated American law. I would insert "illegal" wherever "undocumented" appears in your e-mail.
3. a. I realize that we AG's and former AG's like to refer to ourselves as being or having been the chief "law enforcement" officers in our States. This sounds good on the campaign trail but, except in a few instances, is simply not true. As a general proposition (no pun intended), we should resist this temptation and instead refer to AG's generically

(again no pun intended) as the chief “legal” officers of their respective jurisdictions.

b. To avoid the inference that, despite prior affirmations, we are really much more concerned with “comprehensive immigration reform” than “increased border security”, I suggest the following rewrite of your last two sentences:

“Put simply, practical reform to our federal immigration laws which addresses both issues will make us all safer.”

“We urge you to move expeditiously with consideration and action on such reform legislation.”

Please do not take these observations as critical of your enterprise. If the foregoing changes were made I would sign your letter, but I realize that this is probably not feasible. Since, as you know, Spring has come to Washington, I will begin a search for a blooming of “uncommon sense” and will alert you should I discern any such exotic flower. Good Luck!

Andy

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Subject: Attorneys General for "Uncommon Sense" on Immigration Reform
Date: 04/08/2013 11:23:07 AM

Lynn,

Allow me to make the following observations with respect to your recent e-mail:

1. I have come to dislike the phrase "common sense." Contrary to my hopefully informed intuition as to consequences, almost everything President Obama proposes these days is "common sense", eg., "common sense health coverage, common sense immigration reform, you name it." Indeed, the phrase is being utilized so often so as to become trite; one should also keep in mind that Webster's, among other meanings of "common", defines the term as conveying "second rate." What is needed in the immigration debate is "uncommon sense", a commodity currently in very short supply in Washington. I would rename your e-mail as stated above.
2. Throughout the letter you use the phrase "undocumented". I understand the Liberal urge to use a euphemism, but I have always thought it better to call a spade a spade. In this instance the semantically accurate term is "illegal". The overwhelming majority of the 11 million "illegals" in this country are not victims of administrative error on the part of ICE or some other agency. Nor are they individuals who have simply lost their papers. Instead they are persons who, with their families, have deliberately violated American law. I would insert "illegal" wherever "undocumented" appears in your e-mail.
 - a. I realize that we AG's and former AG's like to refer to ourselves as being or having been the chief "law enforcement" officers in our States. This sounds good on the campaign trail but, except in a few instances, is simply not true. As a general proposition (no pun intended), we should resist this temptation and instead refer to AG's generically (again no pun intended) as the chief "legal" officers of their respective jurisdictions.
 - b. To avoid the inference that, despite prior affirmations, we are really much more concerned with "comprehensive immigration reform" than "increased border security", I suggest the following rewrite of your last two sentences:
"Put simply, practical reform to our federal immigration laws which addresses both issues will make us all safer."
"We urge you to move expeditiously with consideration and action on such reform legislation."

Please do not take these observations as critical of your enterprise. If the foregoing changes were made I would sign your letter, but I realize that this is probably not feasible. Since, as you know, Spring has come to Washington, I will begin a search for a blooming of "uncommon sense" and will alert you should I discern any such exotic flower. Good Luck!

Andy

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. Lynn,

Allow me to make the following observations with respect to your recent e-mail:

1. I have come to dislike the phrase "common sense." Contrary to my hopefully informed intuition as to consequences, almost everything President Obama proposes these days is "common sense", eg., "common sense health coverage, common sense immigration reform, you name it." Indeed, the phrase is being utilized so often so as to become trite; one should also keep in mind that Webster's, among other meanings of "common", defines the term as conveying "second rate." What is needed in the immigration debate is "uncommon sense", a commodity currently in very short supply in Washington. I would rename your e-mail as stated above.
2. Throughout the letter you use the phrase "undocumented". I understand the Liberal urge to use a euphemism, but I have always thought it better to call a spade a spade. In this instance the semantically accurate term is "illegal". The overwhelming majority of the 11 million "illegals" in this country are not victims of administrative error on the part of ICE or some other agency. Nor are they individuals who have simply lost their papers. Instead they are persons who, with their families, have deliberately violated American law. I would insert "illegal" wherever "undocumented" appears in your e-mail.
3. a. I realize that we AG's and former AG's like to refer to ourselves as being or having been the chief "law enforcement" officers in our States. This sounds good on the campaign trail but, except in a few instances, is simply not true. As a general proposition (no pun intended), we should resist this temptation and instead refer to AG's generically

(again no pun intended) as the chief “legal” officers of their respective jurisdictions.

b. To avoid the inference that, despite prior affirmations, we are really much more concerned with “comprehensive immigration reform” than “increased border security”, I suggest the following rewrite of your last two sentences:

“Put simply, practical reform to our federal immigration laws which addresses both issues will make us all safer.”

“We urge you to move expeditiously with consideration and action on such reform legislation.”

Please do not take these observations as critical of your enterprise. If the foregoing changes were made I would sign your letter, but I realize that this is probably not feasible. Since, as you know, Spring has come to Washington, I will begin a search for a blooming of “uncommon sense” and will alert you should I discern any such exotic flower. Good Luck!

Andy

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

Feb-17-2017 003025

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Dear Lynne,

Thank you for bringing this to my attention, and please add my name as a signatory to this letter.
New Hampshire AG 1980-1984.

I too have always thought our bi-partisan efforts as a group are our best.

Sincerely,

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years!
Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

I'm in. You all should know Mark Shurtleff has shown incredible courage on this issue in Utah - not an easy place to take a stand for immigration reform. Kudos to Mark, Grant and Terry for their leadership.

I'm in. You all should know Mark Shurtleff has shown incredible courage on this issue in Utah - not an easy place to take a stand for immigration reform. Kudos to Mark, Grant and Terry for their leadership.

Last Friday, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit issued a major decision vacating a class certification order in an institutional reform case (alleging systemic deficiencies remediable by structural injunctions) that possesses salient characteristics parallel to the foster care suits we confront. Details regarding the case can be found here (and note the internal hyperlink to the D.C. Circuit's decision): <http://tinyurl.com/c8g4yzk>

In effect, the D.C. Circuit, relying on Wal-Mart, has held that proof of systemic deficiencies, or that all class members have suffered a violation of the same provision of law, may be insufficient to sustain a broad class action; instead, the trial court must link a precise policy or practice that affects all members of the class in near-identical fashion to common harm remediable through a single injunction. As bad as they may be, disparate failures to achieve important, legally-mandated objectives – as opposed to a single or uniform policy or practice that bridges all class-members' claims – will not satisfy Rule 23. Even if a uniformly-applied, destructive policy or practice is identified, "the requested relief must respond, at least in part, to a common harm suffered as a result of [the] policy or practice that affects each class member."

One thing remarkable to me about this decision is that the D.C. Circuit was willing to decertify a class that had been certified in 2006 – even after final findings of liability and injunctions ordering relief to the class had entered. The Circuit remanded the case for reconsideration of whether subclasses (or separate classes in a consolidated case) could be certified "and, if so, thereafter to redetermine liability and appropriate relief." So while I'm sure Texas, RI, and my state will be eager to cite this decision, I think everyone might find it interesting.

This decision follows on the heels of another favorable Circuit decision of interest to the subset of us facing claims that a State is failing to comply with federal law in reimbursing providers the costs of foster care: Midwest Foster Care & Adoption Ass'n v. Kincade, 12-1834, 2013 WL 1394975 (8th Cir. Apr. 8, 2013). That decision holds that federal law does not give providers a privately enforceable right under § 1983 to foster care maintenance payments from the state.

Yes, thank you, Rob!

Maybe it's something about our Outlook settings, but I wasn't able to download the opinion from the article. So, I went to the DC Circuit website. For those in the same predicament, I've attached it here.

Subject: imp't new class cert decision

Last Friday, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit issued a major decision vacating a class certification order in an institutional reform case (alleging systemic deficiencies remediable by structural injunctions) that possesses salient characteristics parallel to the foster care suits we confront. Details regarding the case can be found here (and note the internal hyperlink to the D.C. Circuit's decision): <http://tinyurl.com/c8g4yzk>

In effect, the D.C. Circuit, relying on Wal-Mart, has held that proof of systemic deficiencies, or that all class members have suffered a violation of the same provision of law, may be insufficient to sustain a broad class action; instead, the trial court must link a precise policy or practice that affects all members of the class in near-identical fashion to common harm remediable through a single injunction. As bad as they may be, disparate failures to achieve important, legally-mandated objectives – as opposed to a single or uniform policy or practice that bridges all class-members’ claims – will not satisfy Rule 23. Even if a uniformly-applied, destructive policy or practice is identified, “the requested relief must respond, at least in part, to a common harm suffered as a result of [the] policy or practice that affects each class member.”

One thing remarkable to me about this decision is that the D.C. Circuit was willing to decertify a class that had been certified in 2006 – even after final findings of liability and injunctions ordering relief to the class had entered. The Circuit remanded the case for reconsideration of whether subclasses (or separate classes in a consolidated case) could be certified “and, if so, thereafter to redetermine liability and appropriate relief.” So while I’m sure Texas, RI, and my state will be eager to cite this decision, I think everyone might find it interesting.

This decision follows on the heels of another favorable Circuit decision of interest to the subset of us facing claims that a State is failing to comply with federal law in reimbursing providers the costs of foster care: Midwest Foster Care & Adoption Ass'n v. Kincade, 12-1834, 2013 WL 1394975 (8th Cir. Apr. 8, 2013). That decision holds that federal law does not give providers a privately enforceable right under § 1983 to foster care maintenance payments from the state.

Would General Pruitt have some time in his schedule over the next few days to speak with Ashley by phone, given that he won't be attending the event in DC? I think he'd only need about 15 minutes. Thanks!

Subject: Attorneys General for "Uncommon Sense" on Immigration Reform
Date: 04/08/2013 11:23 AM

Lynn,

Allow me to make the following observations with respect to your recent e-mail:

1. I have come to dislike the phrase "common sense." Contrary to my hopefully informed intuition as to consequences, almost everything President Obama proposes these days is "common sense", eg., "common sense health coverage, common sense immigration reform, you name it." Indeed, the phrase is being utilized so often so as to become trite; one should also keep in mind that Webster's, among other meanings of "common", defines the term as conveying "second rate." What is needed in the immigration debate is "uncommon sense", a commodity currently in very short supply in Washington. I would rename your e-mail as stated above.
2. Throughout the letter you use the phrase "undocumented". I understand the Liberal urge to use a euphemism, but I have always thought it better to call a spade a spade. In this instance the semantically accurate term is "illegal". The overwhelming majority of the 11 million "illegals" in this country are not victims of administrative error on the part of ICE or some other agency. Nor are they individuals who have simply lost their papers. Instead they are persons who, with their families, have deliberately violated American law. I would insert "illegal" wherever "undocumented" appears in your e-mail.
3. a. I realize that we AG's and former AG's like to refer to ourselves as being or having been the chief "law enforcement" officers in our States. This sounds good on the campaign trail but, except in a few instances, is simply not true. As a general proposition (no pun intended), we should resist this temptation and instead refer to AG's generically

(again no pun intended) as the chief “legal” officers of their respective jurisdictions.

b. To avoid the inference that, despite prior affirmations, we are really much more concerned with “comprehensive immigration reform” than “increased border security”, I suggest the following rewrite of your last two sentences:

“Put simply, practical reform to our federal immigration laws which addresses both issues will make us all safer.”

“We urge you to move expeditiously with consideration and action on such reform legislation.”

Please do not take these observations as critical of your enterprise. If the foregoing changes were made I would sign your letter, but I realize that this is probably not feasible. Since, as you know, Spring has come to Washington, I will begin a search for a blooming of “uncommon sense” and will alert you should I discern any such exotic flower. Good Luck!

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Attorneys General for "Uncommon Sense" on Immigration Reform
Date: 04/08/2013 11:23 AM

Lynn,

Allow me to make the following observations with respect to your recent e-mail:

1. I have come to dislike the phrase "common sense." Contrary to my hopefully informed intuition as to consequences, almost everything President Obama proposes these days is "common sense", eg., "common sense health coverage, common sense immigration reform, you name it." Indeed, the phrase is being utilized so often so as to become trite; one should also keep in mind that Webster's, among other meanings of "common", defines the term as conveying "second rate." What is needed in the immigration debate is "uncommon sense", a commodity currently in very short supply in Washington. I would rename your e-mail as stated above.
2. Throughout the letter you use the phrase "undocumented". I understand the Liberal urge to use a euphemism, but I have always thought it better to call a spade a spade. In this instance the semantically accurate term is "illegal". The overwhelming majority of the 11 million "illegals" in this country are not victims of administrative error on the part of ICE or some other agency. Nor are they individuals who have simply lost their papers. Instead they are persons who, with their families, have deliberately violated American law. I would insert "illegal" wherever "undocumented" appears in your e-mail.
3. a. I realize that we AG's and former AG's like to refer to ourselves as being or having been the chief "law enforcement" officers in our States. This sounds good on the campaign trail but, except in a few instances, is simply not true. As a general proposition (no pun intended), we should resist this temptation and instead refer to AG's generically

(again no pun intended) as the chief “legal” officers of their respective jurisdictions.

b. To avoid the inference that, despite prior affirmations, we are really much more concerned with “comprehensive immigration reform” than “increased border security”, I suggest the following rewrite of your last two sentences:

“Put simply, practical reform to our federal immigration laws which addresses both issues will make us all safer.”

“We urge you to move expeditiously with consideration and action on such reform legislation.”

Please do not take these observations as critical of your enterprise. If the foregoing changes were made I would sign your letter, but I realize that this is probably not feasible. Since, as you know, Spring has come to Washington, I will begin a search for a blooming of “uncommon sense” and will alert you should I discern any such exotic flower. Good Luck!

Andy

Dear Former Attorneys General,

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Subject: Attorneys General for "Uncommon Sense" on Immigration Reform
Date: 04/08/2013 11:23 AM

Lynn,

Allow me to make the following observations with respect to your recent e-mail:

1. I have come to dislike the phrase "common sense." Contrary to my hopefully informed intuition as to consequences, almost everything President Obama proposes these days is "common sense", eg., "common sense health coverage, common sense immigration reform, you name it." Indeed, the phrase is being utilized so often so as to become trite; one should also keep in mind that Webster's, among other meanings of "common", defines the term as conveying "second rate." What is needed in the immigration debate is "uncommon sense", a commodity currently in very short supply in Washington. I would rename your e-mail as stated above.
2. Throughout the letter you use the phrase "undocumented". I understand the Liberal urge to use a euphemism, but I have always thought it better to call a spade a spade. In this instance the semantically accurate term is "illegal". The overwhelming majority of the 11 million "illegals" in this country are not victims of administrative error on the part of ICE or some other agency. Nor are they individuals who have simply lost their papers. Instead they are persons who, with their families, have deliberately violated American law. I would insert "illegal" wherever "undocumented" appears in your e-mail.
3. a. I realize that we AG's and former AG's like to refer to ourselves as being or having been the chief "law enforcement" officers in our States. This sounds good on the campaign trail but, except in a few instances, is simply not true. As a general proposition (no pun intended), we should resist this temptation and instead refer to AG's generically

(again no pun intended) as the chief “legal” officers of their respective jurisdictions.

b. To avoid the inference that, despite prior affirmations, we are really much more concerned with “comprehensive immigration reform” than “increased border security”, I suggest the following rewrite of your last two sentences:

“Put simply, practical reform to our federal immigration laws which addresses both issues will make us all safer.”

“We urge you to move expeditiously with consideration and action on such reform legislation.”

Please do not take these observations as critical of your enterprise. If the foregoing changes were made I would sign your letter, but I realize that this is probably not feasible. Since, as you know, Spring has come to Washington, I will begin a search for a blooming of “uncommon sense” and will alert you should I discern any such exotic flower. Good Luck!

Andy

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

Feb-17-2017 003290

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

Feb-17-2017 003345

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security.

Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years! Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

Subject: Former AG sign on letter --- Common Sense Immigration Reform

Dear Former Attorneys General,

On behalf of former AGs Terry Goddard, Mark Shurtleff and Grant Woods, I write to ask you to join in signing on to this letter (see attached) conveying to Senate and House leadership and members support for legislative efforts to pass common sense immigration reform in conjunction with increased border security. Could you please get back to me by Tuesday, April 9 if you want to sign on. I hope to get the letter to the Hill on April 10.

Your name will be listed with your state and years in office so please send the years!
Thanks

I have been working with Grant, Terry and Mark for the past several years in encouraging Congress to act. Those in the know believe that the law enforcement perspective provided both through a former AG letter, as well as the one circulating through NAAG/CWAG will make a difference.

Please feel free to call one of us if you want to talk further about this. I also attach below former AG Bob Stephan's comments this week at a Kansas City roundtable coordinated by the National Immigration Forum. There are likely to be lots of grass roots opportunities to speak on this topic in the next few months so please let me know if you would like to become more involved. By the way, Mark Shurtleff is on the Forum Board of Directors. Grant and Terry have also been very active in speaking out on immigration issues.

Thanks so much for your consideration

Lynne

I'm in. You all should know Mark Shurtleff has shown incredible courage on this issue in Utah - not an easy place to take a stand for immigration reform. Kudos to Mark, Grant and Terry for their leadership.

All –

EPA has asked me to ask each of you to remove Acting General Counsel Brenda Mallory (Mallory.brenda@epa.gov) from your email list for this case. I believe she is being inundated. Responding in the future to this email, rather than the initial one from Jonathan Mitchell, will do the trick.

Many thanks, and best regards to each of you.

I would like to clarify that this agreement applies to all GHG petitions including those that have already been filed (by Virginia, et al., the Pacific Legal Foundation, and the Utility Air Regulatory Group) and to those that will be filed later this month.

On behalf of the Utility Air Regulatory Group, we consent to email service. Please serve the following: bbrownell@hunton.com, nfichthorn@hunton.com, hnickel@hunton.com, and awood@hunton.com.

All –

EPA has asked me to ask each of you to remove Acting General Counsel Brenda Mallory (Mallory.brenda@epa.gov) from your email list for this case. I believe she is being inundated. Responding in the future to this email, rather than the initial one from Jonathan Mitchell, will do the trick.

Many thanks, and best regards to each of you.

All –

EPA has asked me to ask each of you to remove Acting General Counsel Brenda Mallory (Mallory.brenda@epa.gov) from your email list for this case. I believe she is being inundated. Responding in the future to this email, rather than the initial one from Jonathan Mitchell, will do the trick.

Many thanks, and best regards to each of you.

EPA has asked me to ask each of you to remove Acting General Counsel Brenda Mallory (Mallory.brenda@epa.gov) from your email list for this case. I believe she is being inundated. Responding in the future to this email, rather than the initial one from Jonathan Mitchell, will do the trick.

Many thanks, and best regards to each of you.

As Peter said, thank you very much for initiating this effort. I would like to clarify that this agreement applies to all GHG petitions including those that have already been filed (by Virginia, et al., the Pacific Legal Foundation, and the Utility Air Regulatory Group) and to those that will be filed later this month.

On behalf of the Utility Air Regulatory Group, we consent to email service. Please serve the following: bbrownell@hunton.com, nfichthorn@hunton.com, hnickel@hunton.com, and awood@hunton.com.

Thanks again.

As Peter said, thank you very much for initiating this effort. I would like to clarify that this agreement applies to all GHG petitions including those that have already been filed (by Virginia, et al., the Pacific Legal Foundation, and the Utility Air Regulatory Group) and to those that will be filed later this month.

On behalf of the Utility Air Regulatory Group, we consent to email service. Please serve the following: bbrownell@hunton.com, nfichthorn@hunton.com, hnickel@hunton.com, and awood@hunton.com.

Thanks again.

Counsel:

In an effort to save paper, resources, and the service delay that goes with mailing paper copies, we propose that all service copies to parties in this case be served via email.

If you agree to this proposal, please respond to all with (1) the name of the party you represent and (2) the best contact information for email service.

This email may reach numerous lawyers representing the same client(s); only one representative of each party needs to respond. If you know of any parties that did not receive this email, please forward it to them.

Feel free to contact us anytime with questions.

Subject: GHG service via e-mail

Counsel:

In an effort to save paper, resources, and the service delay that goes with mailing paper copies, we propose that all service copies to parties in this case be served via email.

If you agree to this proposal, please respond to all with (1) the name of the party you represent and

(2) the best contact information for email service.

This email may reach numerous lawyers representing the same client(s); only one representative of each party needs to respond. If you know of any parties that did not receive this email, please forward it to them.

Feel free to contact us anytime with questions.

Last Friday, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit issued a major decision vacating a class certification order in an institutional reform case (alleging systemic deficiencies remediable by structural injunctions) that possesses salient characteristics parallel to the foster care suits we confront. Details regarding the case can be found here (and note the internal hyperlink to the D.C. Circuit's decision): <http://tinyurl.com/c8g4yzk>

In effect, the D.C. Circuit, relying on Wal-Mart, has held that proof of systemic deficiencies, or that all class members have suffered a violation of the same provision of law, may be insufficient to sustain a broad class action; instead, the trial court must link a precise policy or practice that affects all members of the class in near-identical fashion to common harm remediable through a single injunction. As bad as they may be, disparate failures to achieve important, legally-mandated objectives – as opposed to a single or uniform policy or practice that bridges all class-members' claims – will not satisfy Rule 23. Even if a uniformly-applied, destructive policy or practice is identified, "the requested relief must respond, at least in part, to a common harm suffered as a result of [the] policy or practice that affects each class member."

One thing remarkable to me about this decision is that the D.C. Circuit was willing to decertify a class that had been certified in 2006 – even after final findings of liability and injunctions ordering relief to the class had entered. The Circuit remanded the case for reconsideration of whether subclasses (or separate classes in a consolidated case) could be certified "and, if so, thereafter to redetermine liability and appropriate relief." So while I'm sure Texas, RI, and my state will be eager to cite this decision, I think everyone might find it interesting.

This decision follows on the heels of another favorable Circuit decision of interest to the subset of us facing claims that a State is failing to comply with federal law in reimbursing providers the costs of foster care: Midwest Foster Care & Adoption Ass'n v. Kincade, 12-1834, 2013 WL 1394975 (8th Cir. Apr. 8, 2013). That decision holds that federal law does not give providers a privately enforceable right under § 1983 to foster care maintenance payments from the state.

Maybe it's something about our Outlook settings, but I wasn't able to download the opinion from the article. So, I went to the DC Circuit website. For those in the same predicament, I've attached it here.

One thing remarkable to me about this decision is that the D.C. Circuit was willing to decertify a class that had been certified in 2006 – even after final findings of liability and injunctions ordering relief to the class had entered. The Circuit remanded the case for reconsideration of whether subclasses (or separate classes in a consolidated case) could be certified “and, if so, thereafter to redetermine liability and appropriate relief.” So while I’m sure Texas, RI, and my state will be eager to cite this decision, I think everyone might find it interesting.

This decision follows on the heels of another favorable Circuit decision of interest to the subset of us facing claims that a State is failing to comply with federal law in reimbursing providers the costs of foster care: Midwest Foster Care & Adoption Ass'n v. Kincade, 12-1834, 2013 WL 1394975 (8th Cir. Apr. 8, 2013). That decision holds that federal law does not give providers a privately enforceable right under § 1983 to foster care maintenance payments from the state.

Melissa,

It was a pleasure speaking with you about our client Midland Credit Management. As I mentioned during our call, Troutman Sanders is working with the Illinois Attorney General's office to organize a multi-state effort on behalf of our client, Midland Credit Management and its parent company, Encore Capital Group. As you may know, Midland is one of the industry leaders in the debt buyer/collection industry. Midland buys portfolios of accounts from established credit issuers, such as Chase, Bank of America, and Wells Fargo and partners with individuals as they repay their obligations and work toward financial recovery.

The multi-state effort is designed to permit Midland to address the collective concerns of the state attorneys general in a comprehensive manner. It is our hope that a multi-state action will result in consistency across the states as to how consumers are treated. We believe this effort is particularly timely, given the existing NAAG working group that is focused on the debt collection industry as well as the other recently-announced agreement between nineteen states and another company in the same industry.

To date, 38 states have agreed to join this effort. This process is being led by Illinois Assistant Attorney General Jeff Feltman. His contact information is below:

As I hope Jeff will agree, the process thus far has been collegial. Please feel free to email or call me if you have any questions regarding Midland and the multi-state effort we are organizing.

We look forward to hearing from you and hopefully, working with your office on this matter.

Best regards,

Ashley

Ashley--- I completely understand! Either way. You could either call Ashley on his cell this evening (804)310-0934, or we could reschedule for tomorrow. Ashley advises that his schedule is relatively free tomorrow. Just let me know.

He asked that I determine whether General Pruitt would be in attendance at General Gansler's summit ("Privacy in the Digital Age") being held in Washington, DC, on April 14 – 16. Could you let me know whether he plans to be there?

Ashley,

As I mentioned in my voice mail message, I work with Ashley Taylor who works frequently with General Pruitt. He asked that I determine whether General Pruitt would be in attendance at General Gansler's summit ("Privacy in the Digital Age") being held in Washington, DC, on April 14 – 16. Could you let me know whether he plans to be there?

Thank you for your assistance!

Ashley,

Would General Pruitt have some time in his schedule over the next few days to speak with Ashley by phone, given that he won't be attending the event in DC? I think he'd only need about 15 minutes.
Thanks!

Subject: General Pruitt's Schedule

Ashley,

As I mentioned in my voice mail message, I work with Ashley Taylor who works frequently with General Pruitt. He asked that I determine whether General Pruitt would be in attendance at General Gansler's summit ("Privacy in the Digital Age") being held in Washington, DC, on April 14 – 16.
Could you let me know whether he plans to be there?

Thank you for your assistance!

Using 'Sue and Settle' to Thwart Oil and Gas Drillers

The Endangered Species Act is being employed more than ever to block development.

By STEPHEN MOORE

Oklahoma City Last week the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and an environmental advocacy group agreed to a legal settlement that will place nine species—including the Panama City crayfish, moccasinshell mussel and boreal toad—on the fast track for placement on the endangered species list. It is only the latest of many such listings.

The Center for Biological Diversity has petitioned Fish and Wildlife to designate some 250 species as endangered since 2008. Many of CBD's petitions—and lawsuits—are still in the pipeline. About 97% of the species that are designated as endangered never move off the list.

Next March, Fish and Wildlife will make a determination about whether to add the lesser prairie chicken, found in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Kansas to the list. Harold Hamm, president of Continental Resources, says that the habitat for the prairie chicken overlaps "some of the most promising land for oil and gas leases in the country."

Many Westerners suspect that this environmental activism isn't only or even mostly about saving species and obscure subspecies. Instead, it is about restricting land use on hundreds of thousands of acres of private and state land. The concern is that if these species are listed as endangered, their habitat could be placed off limits for economic development.

In the 1980s, environmentalists successfully used a listing of the Northern Spotted Owl as threatened to cripple the timber industry in Oregon and Washington, throwing many thousands out of jobs. This is the playbook now being used by groups like the CBD—which boasts on its website of its desire to end most oil and gas production in the United States.

Since taking office, the Obama administration and its green allies inside and outside federal agencies have been making expanded use of a tactic called "sue and settle" to issue new and expensive regulations. Groups like CBD and WildEarth Guardians, for example, petition Fish and Wildlife to list a species as endangered. Other environmental groups use a similar tactic to get new water and air regulations from the Environmental Protection Agency. Then, sometimes the very same day, the environmental groups file a lawsuit against Fish and Wildlife or the EPA to force the government to act—arguing that the regulatory process is too slow.

Amos Eno, a former Fish and Wildlife Service official who worked to save the grizzly bear and the condor, is critical of the tactic. Mr. Eno, who now runs Resources First, says the money wasted on these lawsuits could be used on conservation efforts to actually save species from extinction.

Because the federal agencies include former employees of green organizations, sue and settle can be a collaborative, not adversarial, process. The agency may be only too happy to sign a consent decree that courts then rubber stamp. Often, state and industry officials directly affected by the settlements have no opportunity to weigh in.

Increasingly, sue and settle is how rules are made in Washington. The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has found that more than 60 times in the last four years the EPA agreed to settlements with environmental groups to pass regulations that in some cases impose tens of billions of dollars of costs on industry and land owners. The feds have even paid green groups millions of dollars in legal fees for the favor of suing the government.

The Obama administration didn't invent sue and settle, but the pace has increased dramatically since 2009—an era that Oklahoma Attorney General Scott Pruitt calls "sue and settle on steroids."

Last September Mr. Pruitt and 11 state attorneys general presented a Freedom of Information Act request to investigate the communications between the Obama administration and environmental litigants. Their suspicion is that the two are secretly working hand in hand to grease the process of regulating industries it doesn't like. A year has passed, but the EPA has refused to fully comply.

This summer Mr. Pruitt has joined with the other attorneys general—including from Texas and Utah—to sue the Obama administration to comply with the Freedom of Information Act. Mr. Pruitt also believes that sue and settle "is an end run around the Administrative Procedures Act." This is the law that governs how regulations are promulgated, and requires among other things transparency and a reliance on science to justify new rules. "An administration which claims to only want to 'follow the science' has exploited a litigation mechanism to enact new rules imposed on us without reviewing the science," Mr. Pruitt says.

The attorneys general also cite new EPA regional haze rules—which came into being because of sue and settle—that could raise electricity costs in their states by as much as 20 %. On behalf of his fellow attorneys general, Mr. Pruitt says that "we're very worried that under Obama sue and settle will be used by the EPA to issue new regulations on fracking." This could kneecap the oil and gas boom in Western states.

In its report "Sue and Settle: Regulating Behind Closed Doors," the U.S. Chamber of Commerce has counted more than 100 new major rules "with estimated compliance costs of more than $100 million annually" that arose from this tactic. The result is a giant tax on the economy brought to you by the Sierra Club and the Environmental Defense Fund with little or no input or oversight from Congress.

Sen. Charles Grassley (R., Iowa) and Rep. Doug Collins (R., Ga.) have introduced "Sunshine for Regulatory Decrees and Settlements Act of 2013" that would require all proposed consent decrees to be posted for 60 days for public comment before being filed with a court—and allow affected parties to challenge them. Members of Congress in both parties who are worried about the Obama regulatory assault will need to take corrective action if they have any hope of a true economic turnaround.

Mr. Moore is a member of the Journal's editorial board.

Hi Clayton:

Per our conversation today, I am following up with a couple of items:

1. As we discussed, below is Bill's e-mail with attachments. Sorry, I gave Bill's assistant a list of recipients, and forgot to include you and Melissa (copied).
2. Also, our legal team took another review of the AG letter, and a good recommendation was made to include footnotes to source the quotes/legal arguments. The attached version is the same one I originally sent to you, and which we just discussed, with the exception of the added footnotes.

Thanks for putting the AG letter into action, and I think that this letter will make a strong statement and a real difference. Do you think that we will get any Democrats to sign the letter? Also, when you finalize the document and send it out, can I please get a copy for my records?

Thanks again for your help, and let me know if you have any questions.

Subject: BLM's Rep-Proposed HF Rule and Energy Federalism

All:

Just a note to provide you with Devon's initial comments to the OMB Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA) on the BLM's newly proposed draft rule to place sweeping and unnecessary federal regulations on hydraulic fracturing operations on federal and Indian lands.

As you are preparing comments to be filed directly with the BLM by August 23, or are involved in other matters surrounding the rule, we thought it would be helpful to share Devon's current analysis and views in the attached comments -- despite the fact that we fully expect to have an even more thorough understanding of the rule's costs, collection burdens, operational impacts and delays as we continue to analyze the new draft rule for our own August comments to BLM.

We believe it is important to note that the states — not the federal government — are best equipped to design, administer and enforce laws and regulation related to oil and natural gas development. In fact, at the annual meeting of the Western Governors' Association held in Park City, Utah, on June 28-30 a policy resolution was adopted that stated (in part): "Western Governors recognize that the states, territories, and flag islands have effectively regulated the practice of hydraulic fracturing and redundant federal regulation is not required."

In addition, the Federal Land Freedom Act (FLFA), which is also attached, was recently introduced in the Senate. The Act demonstrates a strong commitment by a solid group of senators to adopt a federalism approach to energy development by empowering states to control all aspects of energy development (leasing, permitting, regulation and enforcement) on federal lands within their borders.

States have an excellent record of protecting the environment and public health, while simultaneously facilitating oil & natural gas development and promoting economic growth. Rather than force an unnecessary, one-size-fits-all regulatory regime on top of carefully crafted state-specific programs, BLM should instead work with states on how best to address any health, safety or environmental issues arising from hydraulic fracturing and related operations on federal lands by deferring to proven state regulatory and enforcement programs. By focusing too much on achieving "consistent" regulation (that we hear from DOI and BLM as being needed), rather than the best regulation, the BLM's proposal fundamentally ignores local and regional differences among states.

We hope that you find our filing useful. Also, please let us know if you have any questions or other thoughts. And feel free to use and/or share Devon's comments as you see fit.

Also, as a reminder our next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday September 24th at 9:30 a.m. at the Oklahoma Water Resources Board board meeting room. The Water Board is located at 3800 N. Classen in Oklahoma City; the board room is on the second floor. We are having this meeting in person, rather than via webinar as we will have much to discuss.

Ashley, I have asked for information specific to the AG's address. I haven't received it yet.

Public Service Company of Oklahoma (PSO)

Storm Outage Update #2: Wednesday, July 24, 2013 – 4:30 p.m.

PSO is dealing with significant weather-related power outages across the Tulsa metropolitan area due to a severe thunderstorm packing 60-80 mph winds that struck in the early morning hours.

OUTAGES AND RESTORATION EFFORTS

Tulsa District

As of 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 24, PSO had restored power to about 20,000 customers who lost service in the early morning storm, leaving approximately 76,300 customers in the Tulsa metro area without electric service. PSO has restored service to 16 main feeder power lines, with 76 still out of operation.

Customer outages continue to be most numerous in the southwestern portion of the metro area.

At present, there are approximately 370 PSO line and tree workers focused on restoring power in the Tulsa metro area. PSO has secured an additional 1,030 workers from other AEP companies and other utilities to support restoration efforts.

Based on damage assessment, and barring any future weather events, PSO estimates it could take until 5 p.m., Sunday, July 28, to complete power restoration to 95% of all customers who can take service. The electric service to many customers will be restored much sooner than that time.

This initial estimated time for completing power restoration will be updated as the storm recovery work progresses.

In accordance with pre-arranged plans, PSO will use a portion of Expo Square for parking the work vehicles of out-of-town crews, for refueling vehicles, and for staging materials.

CUSTOMER MESSAGES

- Customers should prepare for a multi-day power outage and are urged to take necessary steps to ensure their health and safety while

PSO works to restore power.

- For safety's sake, assume that any downed utility line is energized with deadly electric current. Stay away from the line and do not touch it with anything. Report it to PSO at 1-888-216-3523.
- Please do not approach crews and utility vehicles you see in your neighborhood to ask when power will be restored. Doing so could jeopardize your safety. Outward vision from the large utility vehicles can be limited. A crew may not see someone who has walked up to their work truck.

INFORMATION

We will continue to provide additional information to you as the restoration effort moves forward.

A "snapshot" view of current outages is available anytime at PSOklahoma.com. Go to the Outages and Problems section of the site and click "View Outage Map."

Hey Bud!

I am sure with the storms you may be very busy today! General Pruitt asked that I reach out and see if there is any timeline on when he and the surrounding area might begin to have their power restored. Hope you are well and that you are getting to spend time with your grandbaby!

Talk soon and thanks for your help on this!

The article includes regional haze in with sue and settle. I was asking if the AG has verbally included regional haze as a sue and settle issue.

OKLAHOMA CITY – Despite an adverse circuit court ruling rebuffing the state of Oklahoma's legal challenge to an Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) edict, a citizen activist group is continuing to fight the controversial regional haze standard that could require Oklahoma power plants to switch fuels to offset sulfur dioxide emissions.

Federal pressure on power generation in Oklahoma could have real-world implications, including a minimum 11-12 percent rate hike for residential consumers. While several state officials have opposed the EPA maneuvers, some state officials have recently been quiet, and a key state utility firm has agreed to changes that will hike utility rates.

EPA critics have assailed underlying authority for the regulatory provision, which is based on a 1977 amendment to the federal Clean Air Act. They decry it as “an aesthetic visibility standard” designed to reduce haze on government lands, with little gain for air quality.

Further, Americans for Prosperity-Oklahoma, says the projected double-digit rate hikes, if the EPA gets its way, will actually be closer to 20 percent – an average of $200 in increased costs for the typical state family.

Matt Ball, state director for AFP-OK, said, “At a time when Oklahomans overwhelmingly agree that electricity rates are already too high, why should state policymakers support a settlement agreement with the Obama EPA and other liberal environmental groups like the Sierra Club that will raise rates on PSO [Public Service Company of Oklahoma] customers up to $200 more per year and pave the way for rates to be raised on all Oklahomans?”

Ball continued, “President Obama has made clear his intentions on power plant regulation and this one EPA regulation, by mandating fuel-switching, will effectively mandate how much Oklahomans will pay for electricity.”

Last weekend, Ball told CapitolBeatOK the petition already had triggered 3,078 Oklahomans to contact state officials via the petition letters.

Ball said, “While the heavy-handed approach of President Obama's EPA is likely to result in utility rate hikes on Oklahoma families and businesses, what is more troubling is that state policymakers might consider supporting it. This plan hurts Oklahomans' pocketbooks and makes our state less competitive for jobs. AFP-OK is circulating this petition so that state policymakers are made aware of how Oklahomans feel about this important pocketbook issue.”

In the first of a series of emails to AFP supporters and other free market advocates in the state, Ball assailed the EPA benchmark as operating “under the guise of pseudo-science.”

Commissioner of Labor Mark Costello told CapitolBeatOK, “Should this EPA mandated policy be implemented in our state, I have serious concerns about the negative impact on Oklahoma's wage earners.” He asserted, “There is no urgent need for the state of Oklahoma to rush into embracing a policy based solely on EPA demands. This issue needs to be fully 'vetted' by the Oklahoma Corporation Commission.”

That three-member commission is the constitutional state agency that regulates many businesses, including all utility companies.

Costello and other critics of the haze mandate say it could erode two of Oklahoma's key economic advantages – comparatively robust employment (a 5 percent jobless rate, among the nation's lowest) and low cost of doing business, not to mention wage improvements over several years

The Oklahoma Industrial Energy Consumers (OIEC) and the state Energy Coalition have faced off with state members of the Sierra Club, who back the haze rule.

Frustrating advocates of energy independence, the EPA applied the regional haze standard to the Wichita Mountains National Wildlife Refuge near Lawton, in southwestern Oklahoma. EPA has pressured for fuel switching (from “clean coal” to natural gas) at power plants more than 250 miles away, in the far northeast corner of the Sooner State.

The situation has provoked unusual division among utility firms. While Public Service Company of Oklahoma (PSO) is willing to settle with EPA, the Oklahoma Gas and Electric (OG&E) has fought the issue in court.

Last Friday (July 26), a divided Tenth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals panel rejected Oklahoma's April 2012 petition to rebuff the EPA's haze rule, issued in December 2011.

Oklahoma Attorney General Scott Pruitt assailed the Tenth Circuit decision, saying, “We disagree and are disappointed with the panel's 2-1 decision. We will continue to fight to preserve the ability of Oklahoma stakeholders to create an Oklahoma solution and to protect Oklahoma consumers from excessive and unnecessary utility costs. We are reviewing the decision and considering our options.”

U.S. Rep. James Lankford, R-Oklahoma City, said he was “frustrated” with the circuit court ruling, which he characterizes as “needless and excessive.” Unless the ruling is tempered upon further review, “It is now certain that Oklahoma utility customers will face a new rate hike without any health or economic benefit.”

In addition to fighting the circuit ruling, Pruitt is part of a coalition of state attorneys general seeking to understand the EPA's alleged “sue and settle” strategy. A federal lawsuit against EPA, filed in Oklahoma's western district, seeks disclosure of EPA tactics benefiting environmental groups like Greenpeace, Defenders of Wildlife, Wildearth Guardians and the Sierra Club.

Pruitt characterizes “sue-and-settle” and the regional haze controversy as part of a “blatant strategy by the EPA to go around the process and bend the rules to create environmental regulations that have failed in Congress.” In a total of 45 settlements already made public, EPA has paid out nearly $1 million in attorneys' fees to environmental groups, Pruitt and the other state AGs assert.

Earlier this year, the states of Oklahoma, Alabama, Arizona, Georgia, Kansas, Michigan, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Carolina, Texas, Utah and Wyoming submitted to EPA a federal open records request focused on the “sue-and-settle” strategy.
